3-Year Course: Comprehensive Design CONTENT DESIGN

総合デザイン科 コンテンツデザイン専攻

This course provides training in designing modern experiences that connect with people worldwide. Students explore diverse design fields, including graphic design, video production, 3DCG, Vtuber content creation, XR, projection mapping, and digital installations. While building a solid foundation in design theory and practical techniques, students also learn to create content that delivers real value to audiences. By the end of the course, they will be equipped to produce engaging, creative, and impactful designs across multiple platforms.
