3-Year Course: Comprehensive Manga/COMIC ILLUSTRATION

総合マンガ科 コミックイラスト専攻

This course is designed for students aiming to build creative careers in manga, anime, games, and light novels. Students acquire key skills such as character illustration, background drawing, and effective visual composition. By producing polished single illustrations, they develop artistic confidence and a strong attention to detail. The course also covers Webtoon production, giving students practical experience and preparing them for professional opportunities in the global creative industry.
